TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 15, 1864

By Telegraph

The leading item this morning announces greatly increased mail facilities to the citizens of Washington and Idaho Territories, via Salt Lake Though only a tri monthly route it will be of great advantage to the people of the mining regions, and when it becomes a daily line, and is extended to the Dalles, as it ought and is likely to be, it will bring the Oregon mail.

There is a suggestion of a breeze in Kentucky, but Gov Bramlette is a sensible man and a patriot While he is disposed to do his duty as the executive of his State, we are sure that he will not fail in his allegiance to the General Government

Other intelligence is unimportant, except local news from southern counties in the State as to the conventions held last Saturday

Southern Esteem for Northern Democrats

While it is true that the South looks up in the Democratic party as its natural ally, it is far from being true that any honest respect is entertained for it. The leaders love the treason, which is manifested by those who oppose the Government, but they thoroughly despise the traitors, who show it. It would seem that Northern men, if they have no patriotism, would at least think a little more of their own sectional interests than to be willing to sacrifice them all, at the bidding of rebels who curse them, while they are doing their utmost to sustain the rebellion It is strange that in the free North—that is unaccountable that among communities jealous of their rights calling themselves intensely democratic and professing ardent devotion to liberty there should be any lack of united opposition to purposes which distinctly aim at the subjection of the free States to the imperious control of the South It might have been expected that in self defence, merely, if no higher motive operated, every man, without regard to political prejudice, would have stood forth with all his courage, influence and substance to resist encroachments, which were sure to end in the overthrow of the power and prosperity of the North But nothing has availed to hinder Democrats from submitting to the demands of the South, and they have even volunteered to sacrifice the land, the lives and treasure of its citizens, and the institutions of freedom, as a free will offering to the infernal treason which counts upon their support, as the chief means of securing its triumph over law and the Constitution Yet having done this, they are scorned and derided not the slightest gratitude is expressed for their servile conduct, but they are thus spoken of by Mr Rives, formerly a Senator from Virginia, who after declaring that he has "no confidence in the so called peace party at the North, and no respect for its leaders, who were an unscrupulous and reckless set of blackguards and demagogues," said

They propose nothing more and it is not certain that they mean anything more, than to give us peace if upon some terms, we will return to the Union This he would never agree to He would rather the war should continue twenty years, and that the South should suffer subjugation and all the deplorable consequences that such a calamity would entail than that she should again affiliate upon any terms with Yankee abolitionists and vandals They must rely exclusively upon their own resources, energy and fortitude. They can depend on no Yankee peace party, and on no Yankee politician When he favored cutting the Gordian knot between the North and South, he intended not only a severance of all the national ties between the two sections but, for himself at least, a dissolution of all political and social relations with the people of the other section The leaders of this peace party are men of no character, even in the North, and we cannot reasonably expect any good result from their friendship By preferring the South their friendship they are guilty of treachery to their own section and country, and if they had an opportunity they would not be long in likewise betraying us.

Another Virginian, named Staples, who spoke on the same occasion, was in favor of encouraging Northern Democrats to persevere in their course of opposition to the Government, and thus closed his remarks

Though we can but despise these men for their perfidy towards their own section, yet, as their conduct tends to embarrass our powerful and unscrupulous enemy, we should prove recreant to our duty to our own country not to encourage this conduct for our own advantage

We commend these glowing compliments to the attention of the Northern Democracy, and if they feel disposed still to help the South, they are just fit to be treated in this manner—to be the slaves of their rebel masters, who seem very justly to appreciate their worth and their disposition to be the base allies of treason.

WASCO COUNTY CONVENTION.—A correspondent at the Dalles informs us, that at the Convention held on Saturday last the following nominations were made For Representative, A G Borland County Judge, O N Denny, Sheriff, Charles White, County Clerk, R B Reed, Treasurer, H J Waldron, County Surveyor, W Logan Dr A H Steele, for Coroner, and Mr. Robb for School Superintendent The following were elected as Delegates to the State Convention Messrs Logan, Mays, Darragh, Borland, Olney, Loughlin, Booth Lyon, Newell and Wood

The Sanitary Fund.

The following letter though written to the San Francisco Committee, will be deeply interesting to our readers as it is intended to apply to the generous people of the whole Pacific coast We hope it will be read by all

U S SANITARY COMMISSION 82 Broadway
NEW YORK, January 7th 1864

My Dear Mr Otis I acknowledge by the telegraph your great contribution of fifty thousand dollars being the January and February quota of California's support of the Sanitary Commission I had the pleasure of personally writing to Governor Downey and welcome him during his visit to our city of half a million inhabitants of New York It happened to be in the office at the time in other business and could not have heard the news but for the lovely and generous [illegible] would have repaid you for your long and kind attention to our interests, and partly that the people of California for their magnificent treasure or

The constancy and enthusiasm of the whole of the Pacific Coast to our Sanitary Commission are the element as our chief dependence [illegible] will be a great deal for the great country Burke at Chicago, Cincinnati, Boston, Buffalo, Albany Washington, which very large sums of money and material [illegible] may naturally thank the [illegible] but for the our Central treasury It is important that the people of California should understand that all the money is fully expended by the branches themselves in the purchase of supplies which [illegible] forwarded to our receiving depots for distribution But the whole cost of distribution, with the use of wagons horses and machinery of every kind which transports, applies and makes [illegible] to the army all these accumulated comforts and necessaries, falls upon our Central treasury which has more to do and is more [illegible] according to the amount of supplies thus furnished to it The more money the branches have to buy supplies we have and the more supplies we have the more it costs to forward them distribute and apply them to our vast army scattered over our wide country All the money and all the supplies that could be raised and furnished would be as a drop to the arrow without us as the full sides of the Croton river would be to the city of New York if the city had not built an expensive aqueduct, which accumulates, economizes and distributes by an intricate and costly system of mains, [illegible] and [illegible] pipes, and stopcocks this water to every house every kitchen and chamber, every washbowl and pitcher and mouth in New York The United States Sanitary Commission is the aqueduct with its enormous pipes to supply and its diversified pipes of distribution now laid down over the whole field of war and maintained, with all the necessary [illegible] and changes of position and spiritual operations from Texas to Kentucky from Kansas to Virginia from the Potomac to the Rio Grande, from Portland to Charleston and Jacksonville and Ship Island from Chicago to Cleveland Cincinnati, Louisville Fort Memphis, Nashville Chattanooga, and wherever the army stay or goes Understand then that the wealth of the branches is indispensable to the soldiers relief, but that their wealth only makes us poor, by giving us more to do and nothing to do it with We are like a stage company with an immense number of passengers but left without forage for our horses or horses for our coaches or rather we should be if California did not make herself the great motive power for the central machinery of the Sanitary Commission, and thus furnish horses and forage by which four months of passengers (the supplies) are all expeditiously transported to their destination—the sick and wounded or the maimed and the hungry soldiers

Don't [illegible] that I [illegible] too far We are [illegible] grateful as to say that the nation [illegible] without support for our central machinery for we have received into our treasury about a million of dollars But of this million the Pacific coast has supplied us with nearly $780,000 leaving only $300 000 to come from the rest of the nation The Atlantic States are waking up to this disproportion and the whole one emulation is aroused. They are preparing a great National Metropolitan Fair at New York, for the benefit of the central treasury of the Commission, which will come off late in March at which they hope, at one blow, to raise perhaps half a million of dollars, and so equalize the contribution of the Atlantic with the Pacific. I rejoice at the holy jealousy I have told our able local committee men that if they wished, the United States Sanitary Commission to throw itself into the arms of its devoted friends in California, and depend wholly on their liberality for the support of the central machinery, that we are not afraid of the result that the newspapers from the interior of the State, and from Oregon and Washington Territory, as well as private letters, were all assuring us of the deep and unstinted sympathy and pride of the Pacific coast in the unexampled work of mercy and love they have made so largely their own and that the nation this side of the Rocky Mountains had only to give us the cold shoulder, or to indicate its fatigue at our dependence upon her, to make us very sure of having the whole heart, and as much of the golden and silver wealth as are needed for your young and generous wealth to put at our disposal

But our people are too wise and [illegible] to allow you to appropriate this privilege exclusively to yourselves! The United States Sanitary Commission (our Central Board) originated, designed and set in motion all the new and machinery both in the homes and peaceful States, where supplies were accumulated, and in the field where they are distributed Its operations are on too vast a scale in relation to the war too momentous, its record too honorable its works and principles too deeply wrought into the tender experiences and grateful memories of nearly a million of men, who in the field and in the hospital have at one time or another had their hunger or nakedness their wounds or fatigues, their sore feet and bleeding limbs ministered to by this institution not to make the sagacious and far looking think that the time is coming, after the hurry of this war is over, when the question will be carefully asked who planned, who worked, who supported the United States Sanitary Commission—who supplied the brains, and who the heart and who the money by which this, the largest most successful and most beneficial charity which Christian history has ever seen, was set a going and kept going? There are even now, people who begin to forecast that the [illegible] value of a good record in this Commission is worth careful consideration

Now the loyal North and West, numerous as the demands which the bounties and the support of soldiers families and all the other local expenses of the war make upon them, do not mean to be behindhand in the support of the Commission They are beginning to see, too, that it is not enough to make their record perfectly clean to support the home branches generously, for they foresee that when a due consideration is given to the subject it will appear to all that the central machinery, the Sanitary Commission proper recognized by the Government to ordinate with the Medical Department, welcomed and assisted by the Generals, loved and relied upon because alone known and seen by the soldiers themselves in hospital and camp as the final heir of whatever interest or National glory or gratitude the movement has awakened, as it is the sole condition of the [illegible] serviceableness of the branches themselves Accordingly the country here is beginning to say that California must not run away with all this gratitude of the soldiers—must not fasten on herself the eyes of the whole world and all future history as the head nurse of the great American army in its memorable and glorious war for the permanent establishment of our National liberties We hope at least, that this is the growing feeling We earnestly and [illegible] desire to make our support National to draw no more from the Pacific than the Atlantic We are anxious to see the account squared, and as much in that scale—the center being the Rocky Mountains—which hangs on this side as on yours when the war terminates

If however, we are disappointed in this hope we shall not be discouraged for we shall not be without your enthusiastic—your ever growing and ever more gracious and cheerful support. If I were not properly and sincerely jealous of my own Atlantic region, and did not for her own sake, and for the sake of her future honor and dignity wish to see her abreast with the Pacific in this truly National enterprise I should not hesitate a moment to fling the Commission and the soldiers sick and wounded on your exclusive nursing and care I certainly believe you would do it—I know you would do it but I will not consent to relinquish to California this unparalleled honor which would give her a political and moral pre eminence above her sisters for all time without a struggle for New York and Massachusetts and Ohio and Illinois, and Rhode Island, and Indiana and every other loyal State in our [illegible] region But of this more over comes when the [illegible] of the United States Sanitary Commission loses energy and efficiency through the poverty of its patriotic and supporters here at home, you may be sure that we shall not see the beautiful and effective system that we have matured impaired or abandoned in any scruple of local or Atlantic pride We shall argue the telegraph wires attached to the heart and the conscience of California, and give it such a pull as will be felt in every [illegible] and house, and hut, [illegible] and hope will be heard and heeded in all [illegible] to the end of time [illegible] our treasury the [illegible] which so many times [illegible] exhausted reservoir—the right [illegible] our dear humanity, pouring [illegible] the wants and suffering [illegible] With our hand on the telegraph [illegible] in your rich hearts and purses we [illegible] and calmly wait the decision of the loyal people of these older States. Let them say We are ready for your demands—turn to them [illegible] we are and we shall [illegible] our supplies and our hope in you, which [illegible] never be shaken, that all the [illegible] in your mountains must be exhausted at the [illegible] once request of ours; and in the [illegible] track and wounded path [illegible] to the [illegible] and Hope and help [illegible]

I am [illegible] and all event gratefully and [illegible] yours truly and the Times [illegible] Committee

HENRY W BELLOWS President

Bulletin Correspondence

The last Portland letter contains several pertinent comments upon passing events—beginning with a notice of the lawsuit recently tried between our late attorney and the last survivor of the Douglas party of the trial, it is said that

[illegible] the [illegible] and [illegible] some laughter and curiosity The witnesses all confessed to being members of the Douglas party at the time the [illegible] and did not [illegible] [illegible] Most of them admitted that the Douglas party was in favor and had drawn [illegible] Some [illegible] Up in the state gat ryto one of the [illegible] whereas [illegible] But only [illegible] The Carter report to have said that this would [illegible] that question" But only [illegible] she was claimed that the party was still [illegible] and that he belonged to it His [illegible] but [illegible] to me mountains The jury found a verdict against the defendant for the amount claimed and he thus learned that those who [illegible] must pay the piper The matter had its serious side as well as [illegible] It showed how much less true in fact than in theory are the much vaunted lines with which the press so often commends itself

Here shall the Press the people's rights maintain
Unawed by power and [illegible] unbribed by gain

The quotation is wrong however and the learned correspondent will permit us to set him right The lines read thus as originally written by their author, the late eminent Judge Story, of the Supreme Court of the United States

Here shall the Press the People's Rights maintain
Unawed by influence and unbribed by Gain
Here Patriot Truth her just claims prosecute dare
Pledged to Religion Liberty and Law

More than forty years ago, the Judge was a regular correspondent of the Essex Register, a republican organ in Salem Massachusetts and while so at the request of its editor, he wrote the above admirable and concise description of the mission of the Press, which is still retained at the head of the same paper, now called the Salem Register, one of the best and most loyal sheets in the Union

The letter to the Bulletin closes with a remark upon the recent action of the Courts in California, which is worth quoting

I see that one of your California contemporaries recklessly avows the doctrine that courts should be governed by public policy and their judgments controlled by circumstances—meaning thereby if it means anything whether such policy or circumstances be contrary to law or not One notable case decided by the only [illegible] rule of [illegible] history has preserved, for our warning and execration In this case, Pontius Pilate was the judge, and Jesus of Nazareth was the accused

WHAT BECOMES OF DEAD HORSES.—Some people will no doubt be astonished to learn that large fortunes have been made every year since the commencement of the war, but of the dead horses of the Army of the Potomac The popular idea is that when Rosinante yields up the ghost, he is buried in some field, or left to moulder into mother earth in the woods, somewhere [illegible] No sir he has made his last charge, and gnawed his last fence rail, but there is from $20 to $40 in the old fellow yet A contract for the purchase of the dead horses in the army of the Potomac, for the ensuing year was let a few days ago to the highest bidder, at $[illegible] per head, delivered at the factory of the contractor Last year 500,000 was cleared on the contract, and this year it is thought $100 000 can be made on it The animals die at the rate of about fifty per day at the lowest calculation At the contractor's establishment they are thoroughly dissected First, the shoes are pulled off They are usually worth fifty cents a set Then the hoofs are cut off They bring about two dollars a set Then comes the caudal appendage, worth half a dollar Then the hide—I don't know what that sells for Then the tallow, if it be possible to extract tallow from the army horses, which I think extremely doubtful, unless he die immediately after entering the service And last but not least, the shin bones are valuable being convertible into a variety of articles that many believe to be composed of pure ivory, such as cane heads, knife handles, &c By the time the contractor gets through with the "late lamented" steed, there is hardly enough of him left to feed a bull pup on

Hereafter, kind reader, when you see a dead horse don't turn up your nose at him but regard him thoughtfully, as the foundation for a large fortune in a single year He may, individually, be a nuisance, but "there is fruit within that passeth show"—$100,000 a year

A BIG SCARE.—The "Democratic" members of Congress got a bad fright last Wednesday Ten thousand copies each of Gen'l McClellan's reports were ordered printed, when Mr Washburne maliciously proposed to have both documents bound up together, in one volume! The idea was very distasteful to the Copperheads. They want to distribute McClellan's report as a campaign document, but are far from willing to have it sent out in such strong contrast with Grant's The latter, brief and soldierlike tells of victories won by skill, dash and daring the former rambling incoherent and voluminous in a tedious string of excuses for opportunities wasted, and disasters needlessly incurred Moved by the pitiful contortions of poor little Mac's admirers Mr Washburne kindly gave way, a Union member remarking that it would be a shame to put Grant in such company

A boy about ten years old was called up in school and flogged by the teacher for squeezing a girl's hand After the punishment was inflicted the class asked why he did it Here plied "He looked so pretty I could not help it Did not the teacher deserve flogging for punishing the boy

On all sides we hear the merits of the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine extolled. He [illegible] declare it the "very best," and prove it to us in so many undeniable facts that we are bound to confess our conviction of the truth of the declaration What other machine will embroider so beautifully, braid so elegantly hem so faultlessly, quilt so evenly stitch so accurately, gather so regularly operate so easily You we conscientiously affirm

PRIVATE ENTERPRISE.—We are informed that a petition, numerously signed by residents of Fourth street is soon to be presented to the Common Council, asking the privilege of making necessary improvements on the street themselves We have, on more occasions than one, alluded to the ill-condition of our streets, which are almost impassable at best, and render the general appearance of the city that of a place in the last stages of decay, rather than the very height of its prosperity The excuse for this wretched state of affairs has been attributed to a defect in the City Charter, which it is alleged the Common Council has been bereft of authority to impose a tax for the purpose of such improvements, and also that there was nothing to compel property holders to make the necessary repairs Now, we suppose when the privilege is asked, by them, to do what the Common Council say they have not the power to compel them to do, their prayers will be granted We have not seen the petition, hence cannot speak of the conditions of it, but anything is preferable to nothing—so let us hope the Council will give it a candid hearing. Should we have any amendments to the City Charter at the approaching session of the State Legislature, we may expect a thorough improvement of the streets, but until that is done let private enterprise be unrestrained when it is offered to stop up some of the mudtraps and sink holes that curse the brightest anticipations of our young and rising city

THE UNION SALT WORKS.—Yesterday the bark Ivanonma was run along the wharf at the salt works of Messrs Richards & McCraken, to discharge her cargo of salt The trip ropes and apparatus for hoisting were arranged last evening and the work will proceed to day The process which this salt has to undergo is a matter of interest. The mill is constructed in the shape of a flouring mill the salt in bulk is raised over it by means of elevators and passing down again into a hopper, is received into the mill, where it is ground to any desired degree, and immediately sacked for market One mill is sufficient to afford lively work for five men and like the tailings of a sluice box must be kept clear The amount of salt consumed in this section of country is enormous, and the demand is constantly increasing, inasmuch as it is an indispensible article around amalgamators, in silver mining

LIBRARY MEETING.—The board of directors of the Library Association met last evening and elected the following officers W S Ladd, President Wm Strong, Vice President B Goldsmith Treasurer The Secretaries were elected temporarily—Henry Failing, Corresponding and W S Caldwell Recording The [illegible] was fixed at $5 quarterly dues to the beginning of quarters to be January, April, July and October The committee reported favorable to taking rooms corner of First and Stark streets, in Stark's building

BREAD FOR THE PASSOVER.—We witnessed the preparation and baking of the unleavened bread, yesterday, at the bakery of Mr. R Pittock, to be used at the coming passover by the Beth Israel congregation The passover continues eight days, the two first principal days being Thursday and Friday April 21st and 22d, and the two principal last days are Wednesday and Thursday, April 27th and 28th The bread is a round flat cake, the size of a plate, and the thickness of a butter cracker, heretofore it has been imported from San Francisco

MACHINERY CONTRACTS.—Contracts were closed yesterday for another 5 stamp quartz mill, to be manufactured at the Oregon Iron Works, in this city to be a duplicate of the one they are now constructing for Messrs Fountain & Lafelle The new mill is intended for operation on the Santiam Gold and Silver Mining Company's lodes The same Iron Works have engaged to build a pair of Engines, 10 inch bore, 4-foot stroke, for a steam boat which is to run on the Upper Columbia and Snake rivers

THE FIRE.—Upon inquiry we have ascertained that the fire, spoken of yesterday, is in the woods, in the rear of Cottonwood point It was too far back from the river to be seen, from the boats on the Columbia, but we are informed by passengers on the Hunt, that at some places the atmosphere was dark with the density of smoke It continued spreading all day yesterday, and after dark again lighted up the horizon

RETURNING THE GOODS.—Collector McCoy was engaged yesterday in returning the goods recently levied upon, to the delinquent taxpayers The matter has been a great annoyance to the Collector, but he has faithfully "obeyed the powers that be," in every instance that relates to the vexed question, which may now be practically considered settled by the decision of Judge Shattuck, published yesterday morning

THEATRICAL.—The first appearance of Mrs Leighton at Willamette Theatre last night, was greeted by a large and fashionable audience, and we can safely say that the performance was witnessed with general satisfaction A good bill is offered to night and the lovers of Comedy and Song should secure their seats during the day, as we bespeak for the managers another full house

THE FENIAN BROTHERHOOD.—A meeting is called for this evening at the Hall of the Hibernian Benevolent Society for the purpose of consultation on the subject of organizing a circle of the Fenian Brotherhood in Portland Throughout California, and other places

The amount of salt consumed in this part of country is enormous, and the demand is constantly increasing, inasmuch as it is an indispensible article around amalgamating, in silver mining.

LIBRARY MEETING.—The board of directors of the Library Association, met last evening and elected the following officers: W. S. Ladd, President; Wm. Strong, Vice President; B. Goldsmith, Treasurer. The Secretaries were elected temporarily — Henry [illegible], Corresponding, and W. S. Caldwell Recording. The initiation fee was fixed at $5, quarterly dues $3; the beginning of quarters to be January, April, July and October. The committee reported favorable to taking rooms corner of First and Stark streets, in Stark's building.

BREAD FOR THE PASSOVER.—We witnessed the operation and baking of the unleavened bread, yesterday, at the bakery of Mr. R. W. A., to be used at the coming passover by the Beth Israel congregation. The passover is eight days, the two first principal days being Thursday and Friday, April 21st and 22d, and the two principal last days Wednesday and Thursday, April 27th and 28th. The bread is a round flat cake, the size of a plate, and the thickness of a butter [illegible]; heretofore it has been imported from San Francisco.

MACHINERY CONTRACTS.—Contracts were closed yesterday for another 5-stamp quartz mill, to be manufactured at the Oregon Iron Works, in this city, to be a duplicate of the two they are now constructing for Messrs. Fountain & LaFelle. The new mill is intended for operation on the Santiam Gold and Silver Mining Company's lodes. THEATRICAL.—The first appearance of Mrs. Leighton at Willamette Theatre last night, was greeted by a large and fashionable audience, and we can safely say that the performance was witnessed with general satisfaction. A good bill is offered to-night, and the lovers of Comedy and Song should secure their seats during the day, as we bespeak for the manager another full house.

THE FENIAN BROTHERHOOD.—A meeting is called for this evening, at the Hall of the Hibernian Benevolent Society, for the purpose of consultation on the subject of organizing a circle of the Fenian Brotherhood in Portland. Throughout California, and other places, Irishmen have done much to adopt a scroll of united brotherhood like this, having for their object the independence of Ireland.

THE OVERLAND STAGES.—On the first of next month the Overland Stages will begin to run on the seven days time, from Sacramento. They will come direct to Portland, and in case the roads outside of the city were in good condition, the present state of Front street would not admit of their making schedule time from the suburbs to the Post Office.

EXPORTS.—The bark Industry, Capt. Corno, will make up her cargo in Portland, which will consist of flour, oats, etc., in addition to 100,000 feet of lumber from Estes & Stimson's mill.

A NEW FERRY.—The sun and active breezes are doing a good work for our streets, but they cannot manage the unfathomable slough near the corner of Stark and Second streets. The water there won't "dry up," and it is reported that the enterprising owner of the adjacent property being satisfied that the Common Council will not allow a draw-bridge to be built, proposes in a day or two to put on a ferry boat, to be called the Valiandigham, in honor of somebody who is famous for being put to bad uses, and to be commanded by the owner—he of the ex-Sheriffs of this county—a very good fellow at heart, though his head is as full of democratic mud as the street is in front of his lots.

THE SOCIABLE THIS EVENING.—The ladies of the Presbyterian Society invite their friends to attend another of their most agreeable social entertainments this evening at the vestry in the basement of the new church. We are informed that the management of the sociable is to be in the hands of two of the most excellent and hospitable ladies that live among us, or as to that—that live anywhere; and we can assure everybody, who wishes to pass a pleasant evening in the best society, and at the same time do something for a good cause, that this opportunity ought not to be neglected.

ROUGH ON THE RIVERS.—It is said that yesterday was by all odds the roughest day of the season, on the rivers. The boats of the Columbia are reported to have experienced quite a shaking, rolling sometimes so far over that the paddles would scarcely dip.

WHARF REPAIRED.—The pile driver yesterday set some heavy and substantial piles at Couch's wharf, in repair of the damages occasioned by the Oregon at the time she ran into and damaged the Jane A. Falkinburg.

DRILL.—The Firemen will be out again this evening to practice their machines, in filling a reservoir.

THE Senator's freight last night consisted of 26 tons of apples and 20 tons of flour to Allen & Lewis, besides 30 tons to others, and 21 passengers.

Columbians No. 3.—Drill this evening at 7 o'clock precisely. By order, H. HOYD, Sec'y.

Protection No. 4.—Drill this evening at 0½ o'clock. By order, W. T. PATERSON, Sec'y.

No More

Hushed be the song and the love-notes of gladness
That broke with the morn fr the cott ge door—
Muffle the tread in the soft stealth of sadness
For one who returneth whose chamber lamp burneth
No more

Silent he lies on the broad path of glory,
Where withers unarmored the reddest of war
Grand is his cough, through the pillows in gory,
Mid forms that shall battle and groan that shall rattle
No more

Soldier of Freedom thy trenches are filled—
The dreams that were thine of the triumph are—
Death with the night of thy manhood blended—
The bugle shall call the reveille no more

Far to the Northward the banners are flaming
And fast comes the tap of the drum-master's feet
Low to the breeze is the wail waxing strong
Thy comrades shall cross the dark river no more

Far to the Westward the day star vespers
And hovers o'er its head like a priest, to adore
Soldier, the twilight for thee has no whispers
The night shall forsake thee, the morn shall awake thee
No more

Wide o'er the plain, where the white tents are glowing
In spectral array, like the graves they resemble—
One there is empty where once there was living
Or deeds that are boasted, or One that is toasted
No more

When the Commander to-morrow proclaims
A list of the names for the nation to mourn
Then shall be known with the heroes his name
Who wake from their slumbers, who answer the numbers
No more

Hushed be the song and the love-notes of gladness
That broke with the morn fr m the cottage door—
Muffle the tread in the soft stealth of sadness,
For one who returneth, whose chamber lamp burneth

A LEGAL ANECDOTE —The Round Table of last week has something over a column of pleasant gossip about Washington Irving, in the course of which occurs the following anecdote related to Mr Irving by the late ex-President Van Buren, of the celebrated legal orator Elisha Williams, of Columbia county

He was a most graceful speaker, and his voice, particularly in its pathetic tones, was melody itself All who remember Ogden Hoffman's voice (he who called 'The Flute" by his fellow members of the bar of New York) can appreciate the mellifluous organ of Mr Williams His power over a jury was astonishing He swayed them as with the wand of an enchanter, and it was very seldom that he failed to secure a verdict for his client, but on one occasion he did in such a ridiculous manner, that a crowded court and grave judges on the bench were convulsed with laughter at the burlesque of the result He was completely discomfited by an ignorant, impudent, unlettered pettifogger who knew no law, but somehow or other had obtained the credit of shrewdness, and the reputation among his former neighbors of being hard to beat.

The case, if we remember rightly, was an act of murder Mr. Williams, of course, on the ground of his power over the jury was for the defense His peroration was exceedingly touching and beautiful:

'Gentlemen of the jury,' said he, "if you can find this unhappy prisoner at the bar guilty of the crime with which he stands charged, after the adverse and irrefragible arguments which I have laid before you, pronounce your fatal verdict Send him to his chains upon the dungeon floor, writing the death which he is to receive at your hands then go to the bosom of your families—go lay your heads on your pillows—and sleep if you can'

The effect of these closing words of the great legal orator was at first thrilling, but by and by the pettifogger, who had volunteered to follow the prosecuting attorney, arose and said

"Gentlemen of the jury I should despair, after the weeping speech which has been made to you by Mr Williams, of saying anything to do away with its eloquence. I never heard Mr Williams speak that piece of his'n better than what he spoke it jest now. Once I heard him speak it in a case of stealing, down to Schaghticoke, then he spoke it ag in in a case of rape up to Esopus, and the last time I heard it, before jest now was when them niggers was tried—and convicted, too, they was—for robbing Van Pelt's hen house, over beyond Kingston But I never know'd him to speak it so elegant and affectin' as when he spoke it jest now!"

This was a poser! The jury looked at one another, whispered together, and our pettifogger saw at once that he had got them He stopped at once, closing with the single remark: "If you can't see, gentlemen of the jury, that this one speech don't answer all cases, then there's no use t of my saying anything more!"

And there wasn't, he had made his case, and they awarded him their verdict.

A FRIGHTENED DARKEY —The diver who goes down to clean the bottoms of the Monitors at Port Royal, being a man of herculean proportions, when clad in his submarine armor becomes monstrous in size and appearance A correspondent of the Baltimore American says

A more singular sight than to see him roll or tumble into the water and disappear from sight, or popping up, blowing as the air escapes from his helmet, like a young whale, can scarcely be imagined Waters has his own ideas of a joke, and when he has a curious audience will wave his scraper about as he "bobs around" on the water, with the air of a veritable river god One of his best jokes —the better for being a veritable fact—occurred last summer While he was employed scraping the hull of one of the monitors, a negro from one of the up-river plantations came alongside with a boat load of water melons. While busy selling his melons the diver came up, and rested himself on the side of the boat The negro stared at the extraordinary appearance thus suddenly coming out of the water with alarmed wonder, but when the diver seized one of the best melons in the boat and disappeared under the water, the gurgling of the air from the helmet mixing with the muffled laughter, the fright of the negro reached a climax. Hastily seizing his oars, without waiting to be paid for his melons, he put off at his best speed, and has not been seen in the vicinity of Station Creek since He cannot be tempted beyond the bounds of the plantation, and believes that the Yankees have brought river devils to aid them in making war

DANCING —"I am an old fellow," says Cowper, in one of his letters to Hurdis, "but I had once my dancing days as you have now, yet I never could find that I could learn half so much of a woman's character by dancing with her as by conversing with her at home, when I could observe her behavior at the table at the fireside, and in all the trying circumstances of domestic life We are all good when we are pleased, but she is the good woman who wants not the fiddler to please her"

BOTH DISSATISFIED —The late battle in Florida seems to have given general dissatisfaction The rebels are disappointed and the Federals are displeased, as is evinced by removing the commanders of both armies The Government has sent Gen James to take command, and the rebels General Finnegan. Such is the luck of war

A juryman having applied to the Recorder to be excused from serving, on account of deafness, the latter asked "Could you not hear my charge to the Grand Jury sir"—"Yes, I heard every word of it," was the reply, "but couldn't make any sense of it"

SAW FROLICK HOG —They're got down in Cortland county, New York, an old farmer decided for his greediness and has been knocking for a spot wherein to turn a penny honestly, or (to tell the truth very particular) the reverse A while ago he succeeded by accident in raising a very large hog. It was soon noised abroad and the people in that vicinity began to gather on the old man to see the "monstrosity" A gentleman from our "town" was stopping awhile in the village, and hearing of the porcine sight, and so much said about it desired to see the sight, and having obtained direction as to the locality, started for the spot Arrived there, he met the old gentleman and inquired about the 'animile' "Well yes" the old fellow said "the d—l got such a critter in my pig pen but he guessed he'd have to charge him about a shillin for lookin at him The stranger looked at the old man for a minute or so pulled out the deserved one hundred at to him and started to go off Hold on, says the other, "don't you want to see the hog" "No" said the stranger, "I have seen as big a hog as I want to see" and off he went

AYER'S
Cathartic Pills
(SUGAR COATED)
ARE MADE TO
PURGE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE
Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.
Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach
Dr J C AYER Sir I have been regularly cured of my worst headache from which I could have but a dose or two of your Pills Their action in the case mentioned which they effected at once Health will restore both as they do me, the Lord knows
Yours till great respect,
EDWARD GRIFFITH Cashier of Shawnee Co Bank
Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints,
DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON D C, Feb 1863
Sir I have made the most extensive use of your Cathartic Pills in my general and hospital practice, and have found them the best cathartic we have ever employed They are the best purgative for the liver we are acquainted with, and for the cure of all bilious disorders require but a trial to establish their superiority over all other cathartics The remedy for the many cases of ill health resulting from a neglected liver, which I have met with in my own practice, is generally found in your Pills, and I seldom fail to effect a cure when they are fairly tried Indeed, I have come to look upon this result as certain, when the case is one that can be benefited by medicine I feel grateful for the many cures your Pills have enabled me to perform, and shall continue to read with pleasure whatever evidence may reach me of their virtues in the hands of other physicians Respectfully yours,
ALONZO BAIL, M D, Physician of the Marine Hospital
Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.
POST OFFICE, HARTLAND Me Co, March 16, 1863
DR AYER Your Pills are the perfection of medicine I have always kept them in my family, and they have done more good than a dollar's worth of any other medicine ever did us Indeed, we should be sick and pine away for months without them Some time since, at great expense but little trouble, I sent them to my brother in Ohio, and they cured him of a most obstinate case of Dysentery, after the doctors had given him up and said he could live but a few days Within a week after he began to take your Pills he was on his feet, and in a few days more was about his work as usual Two doses of your Pills cured his wife of a severe attack of Relax, and one dose relieved their child of worms
Yours truly, JEREMIAH BARTLETT
Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.
FORT RECOVERY O, Dec 1, 1863
DR AYER I have used your Pills in my practice extensively and among the many I have tried in my family and among the various kinds in use, I do not hesitate to say that your Pills are the best I am acquainted with To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known and I can confidently recommend them to my friends
Yours, J F WHITE
WILLIAM WYCKOFF & CO, N Y, Oct 24, 1863
DEAR SIR I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice and find them the best cathartic to purify the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

DR. AYER Your Pills are the paragon of all that is good in medicine They have cured me of the daughter of disease, broken upon her hands and feet that had become incurable with blotches and pimples on her face and hands, and our child was cured by her She also tried your Pills, and they have Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From Dr Rev Dr Hotchkiss
Honored Sir I should be unjust to myself and to you if I should not say that your Cathartic Pills have brought me relief and comfort in my limbs and brought health and vigor to my whole system which seemed in almost hopeless ruin from the effects of Rheumatism and Gout, and from the advice of your excellent agent in Detroit, Dr Pitcher, I tried your Pills Their effect was wonderful, restoring in the use of them I was well
SENATE CHAMBER, Boston, Mass, Feb 6, 1863
DR AYER I have been entirely cured of a painful disease called Gout—a painful disease indeed
FAY PUSEY
For Dropsy, Plethora, or Kindred Complaints, requiring an active purgative you will find this the best remedy
For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are unsurpassed
G Cook
Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Ball and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alternative action of this
Most of the pills in market contain a large amount of mercury which although it may give a short relief from the dreadful consequences of a cold will leave behind the seeds of disease, to undermine the constitution, and make the victim miserable for life These contain no mercury whatever

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL
COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease
We need not speak to the people of every town and almost every person in the American States of its wonderful cures of pulmonic complaints, as its virtues have been proved in the severest trials, and are known to many generations Suffice it to say, that any medicine which can do what this can, may be relied on when all other remedies fail Many of our most eminent physicians have abandoned the use of all other expectorants in favor of this, as they have found that it will cure more cases, and cure them more speedily, than any other medicine, and that it will do this when nothing else can even relieve Many of the most appalling and fatal diseases that afflict mankind originate in a cold, or a slight cough, which, being neglected at first, fastens upon the vitals with a deadly grip Against the insidious enemy, no remedy has ever been found so speedily effectual as this Cherry Pectoral We have abundant proofs of this fact in the certificates of those who have been cured of Consumption, Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, Hoarseness, Croup, Asthma, Incipient Consumption, and other diseases of the throat and lungs, by the use of this medicine, and we believe that no one who will give it a fair trial will be disappointed in the results it will surely accomplish Many of the worst cases of Pulmonary Consumption, after all other remedies had failed, have been completely cured by the use of this Pectoral, and the patients restored to sound health and vigor Many of the most learned and reliable physicians in the country have given certificates of the cures effected by this Pectoral, and we have the testimony of Clergymen, Statesmen, and Judges, to the same effect Such evidence is entitled to the confidence of the afflicted
